

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release: 11th February 2014

Local Alzheimer charity is the winner of St Paul's Parish Quiz.

Contestants at the ever popular (and hotly contested) St Paul's Parish Quiz, sharpened wits and their pencils on Saturday (8th February). Ably supported by quizmaster, Andy Howell and his wife, Kirsty (scoring), a packed crowd enjoyed ten rounds of questions (with plenty of banter), stopping half way to tuck into a Fish 'n' Chips supper and draw the Chinese Raffle.

Margaret Davies, chair of St Paul's Social Committee said, "We are delighted by the turnout this evening. This is a popular event and we've sold over 90 tickets tonight." She added, "I'm thrilled that we've raised enough tonight to donate £300.00 for the Ascot Area Alzheimer Support Group, a charity nominated by Andy and Kirsty."

Fr Richard Lamey, Parish Rector said, "It's been a really enjoyable evening and I am most grateful to everyone who contributed to the evening's success."

The parish quiz event was one of a number of events taking place each month over the coming year as St Paul's Church celebrates its 150th Anniversary. The next event will be Choral Evensong on Sunday 16th February at 6.15pm when St Paul's will welcome back the Revd Roy Burgess, Vicar of Owlsmoor, and formerly Assistant Priest at St Nicholas, Emmbrook, in the Parish of St Paul. For further details on plans for 2014 celebrations, please see the website www.stpauls-wokingham.org.uk or call the Parish Office on 0118 979 2122.
