Dear Church Family and all other readers,

There is a theme of Celebration in this issue. In several items, we celebrate and give thanks for all that is going on in our churches, locally, nationally and internationally!

Deborah's clergy letter celebrates too the 800th anniversary of the Magna Carta, one of the most celebrated documents in history.

Another celebration this year is the 70th anniversary of Christian Aid. Did you know that Christian Aid and a number of other relief agencies were founded as a response from the churches to the suffering caused by the Second World War? Since then, whilst the world has grown much richer, the needs of many of its people not just in times of disaster but in their everyday lives, continue to be great.

And finally, of course, especially at this time of year we celebrate the Resurrection of our risen Lord!

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead... “
(1 Peter 1 v3)

God Bless,

Val

INTRODUCTION TO 2014 ANNUAL REPORTRev'd Patrick King with Richard Lamey

Last year's introduction began 'with great satisfaction and excitement', and this year is no different. 2014 was, on reflection, a real year of flourishing and growth here at Woosehill Church.

We continue to build on our links with the Anglican parish, and it has been with great pleasure that I share in the leading of worship and in ministry with both Richard and Debbie. We have also continued to enjoy the hard work and dedication put in by the 'home team' as worship is led by Elaine and Steve, and Doreen and Roland. We are blessed with a wonderfully varied way in which we can worship and sing praises to God.

Talking of which; the music group continue to lead us with great aplomb, and notable thanks must go to Mike Cole, for coordinating and transcribing mountains of music! As I said at worship consultation - the music group is FAR from being a stop-gap in lieu of something else; rather our music has become something wonderfully integral to the 'Woosehill Way', and the quality and consistency of the music in our worship is something to be celebrated. Long may that last - and may we continue to attract others as our musical life grows and develops. I've heard a new CD is in the works....!

The same can be said of our worship. No more can it be said, that the 'home team' simply fill in when no clergy are around. If I had the power to outlaw such a sentiment, I would! Lay-led worship is central to the life of Woosehill Church, and we continue to enjoy quality and engaging services from Steve and Roland, Elaine and Doreen. From Cafe Church, which provides such a wonderful space for families and friends to worship together over coffee and pastries... to Steve's legendary Desert Island Disc services, and Roland and Steve's talking-head presentations... we have a talented and creative team. Our monthly service plan provides much scope for creative worship - so perhaps God is calling you....

An awful lot has been going on in the life of our church community this past year. As ever, a lot of hard work and energy goes into the everyday running of this building, and our thanks must go to all those on the Church Council, Fabric and Finance committee and the Staff and Stewards. Without their dedication to the administrative and practical jobs, we wouldn't have nearly as much time to give to matters of mission and discipleship. So thank you, to all who give their time, be it cleaning or organising, setting up projectors and handing out microphones, welcoming people to church with a smile... whatever you do, you are contributing to the flourishing of God's kingdom here in Woosehill. Thank you.

A big feature of 2014 has been the focus on discipleship, and you'll read later on about the multitude of groups - both social and fellowship based, and more focused around learning and education - but they all add to the life of our church community, and show how serious we are about both breadth AND depth. We are called to deepen and explore our own faith, as well as making new disciples.

So run the bath, pour yourself a glass of sparkling elderflower, and revel in all there is to read about the life of this wonderful church community. Then pray. Pray that all these initiatives and fresh shoots of life may continue to bloom. Pray that we may engage more fully with the wider Woosehill community. And pray that you may hear and respond to God's call, as we live and worship and learn and grow together.

Paddy and Richard

Clergy Letter

Being neither an historian nor a lawyer, I could not give a definitive answer on whether Magna Carta is the most ground breaking document in history, or simply a charter for the Barons.

2015 is the 800th anniversary of this document – or documents, as there are several versions, only four of the original ones survive: two at the British Library, and one each at Salisbury and Lincoln cathedrals. Through all its metamorphoses, three of the charter's clauses still hold in English law: the right to a trial by peers (a jury); the privileges of the City of London; and the liberties of the Church. A recent example of its abiding importance occurred when people encamped nearby cited Claus 39 successfully at Guildford Court.

Earlier in the year, it was amusing and baffling to discover the only historical work on the Magna Carta to be found in Egham (the Runnymede town) was a colouring book costing £1. Things have changed considerably since then – places all around the area and further afield are now hosting flower festivals, exhibitions, and all manner of celebrations. Staines (where the Barons were said to have lodged – the London side of the Thames from Runnymede) has an exhibition in the museum; and a pageant, near Egham takes place this month.

A couple of years ago, to kick off the process leading up to the 800th Anniversary of the signing of the Magna Carta, there was a gathering in the flood plains of Runnymede. One of those summoned to this ceremony was a friend, recently been appointed Social Responsibility Officer in Salisbury. 'I have been sent to a place called Runny-Mead!' he said. Newly ordained, from east coast America, he was, I think, amused and perplexed by what he found. It was more than surreal to see a turnout of people which included MPs – a cabinet Minister or two, several Mayors, and some of the most senior American Lawyers. All were arrayed in regalia of different kinds, chains (of office), and wellingtons, with serious waterproofs overlaying braided and ceremonial dress, for there was nothing to protect against the elements which blew up from the river below and raged down from the hillsides above. All, not least those who had not changed designer footwear for humbler plastic, squelched across the boggy fields that are Runnymede. The ceremony was long and cold. Not a single complaint was heard...

As you may know, the memorial was erected by the American Bar Association: No trace of an English Memorial. Understatement can be an eminently national art. Yet whatever the legal and historical legacy of this amazing work, what must never be understated is taking seriously freedoms under the law, human rights, the right to a home, and to live free from fear and oppression. These remain every bit as critical 800 years later. If these reminders mean anything at all, as citizens and as Christians, they must be applied to the conditions confronting us – whether here, in the Mediterranean Sea, or further afield. No memorial could be greater than human striving towards universal justice for all God's people.

If you have never visited Runnymede, or are curious to see it in glorious and unaccustomed Technicolor...a pageant is planned for 14th June, on Runnymede itself, not far from the so-called 'historic' town of Egham. It will be a chance to celebrate, have some fun, and enjoy the freedoms so hard won, and so precious.

BOOK REVIEW*TENWhy Christianity makes sense*

by the Rt Rev. John Pritchard, until recently Bishop of Oxford.

This isn't the sort of book that you start at the beginning and plough on until you reach the end. Neither is it a heavy tome on Theology, although it is all about faith. It is a book of lists, which takes a subject and breaks it down into ten short sections of John Pritchard's understanding and views on that subject.

For example, one chapter is headed "Ten problems people have with faith", in which John discusses such common ideas as 'Faith is incompatible with science', and 'All faiths are the same'.

There is also practical help such as 'Ten ways to pray', which includes 'Trust your instincts' and 'All of life as prayer'.

In between the chapters there are stories, and things for the readers to think about when they've finished reading.

My favourite chapter is 'Ten reasons to believe in God', which is good to dip into when I've been spending time with people who don't. That's the beauty of this book, you can start wherever you like, where the subject speaks to you at that time.

If you were in church when Bishop John visited us and spoke to us, you will remember what a friendly and down-to-earth man he is, and this book is just like that. He talks to the reader as if you were face-to-face.

I ordered it from Bookends and it cost £9.99 - worth every penny!

YELDALL OPEN DAY, SATURDAY 4th JULY

Here at Yeldall Manor Christian drug and alcohol rehabilitation centre, in Hare Hatch, near Wargrave, Reading, we have much to celebrate and we want to share it with you!

We have been blessed this year with much better occupancy than in some previous years. And, despite the inevitable blips and disappointments, the atmosphere amongst the residents has been largely positive too. It has been good to see so many men go on from the first-stage Yeldall Manor programme to the second-stage Lodge programme, and there are also exciting developments in our aftercare provision. This will enable us to offer much more support to men as they face the difficult transition from rehab back into the community, learning to cope with life drug- and alcohol-free.

To enable you to find out more about the work, you are invited to join us for our annual Open Day on the afternoon of Saturday 4th July. Entry and parking are free and gates open at 1pm, when you can purchase a pork/beef lunch. From 1.30pm, there will be stalls and activities for all ages. You can buy plants and homemade cakes (contributions welcome) or try your hand at the coconut shy, penalty shoot-out, or golf game. Younger visitors might enjoy face-painting or the bouncy castle. Chissock Woodcraft will also be open throughout the afternoon, showcasing the different services on offer there.

From 3pm, the Celebration in the marquee is always the highlight of the day, with praise to lift the roof, and testimonies that will touch your heart, as well as time to remember and thank God for His faithfulness to us.

After the Celebration, from 4.30pm, we can enjoy delicious strawberry teas on the lawn - more time to catch up with friends old and new whilst enjoying some live music.

To make the day its customary success, we need small, brand new items for prizes (toiletries, toys, stationery, including things suitable for men and for teenagers – by 26th June, please) and also need people to help run the games and stalls and serve drinks etc. If you can lend a hand, or would like any further details, please call Sue on 0118 940 1093 / e-mail sue-hedger@yeldall.org.uk.

Our link parish in Sweden

During April the parish welcomed a group of young people from Växjö, our link parish in Sweden, first the boys' group and then the girls', confirmation candidates and keen football players and supporters!

On Sunday 26 April Woosehill hosted a BBQ for the girls during their hectic few days visiting the area and I'm sure they were impressed that Wokingham has its very own Swedish mayor, UllaKarin Clark who kindly gave up her time to welcome both groups in the Town Hall on consecutive weeks.

We look forward to continuing to develop our links with Växjö.

Evensong at St Paul's - Sermon series 2015*Theme: "My one prayer for the Church of England"

Following on from the great success of the 2014 sermon series, we are delighted to unveil the series for 2015.

The hope of the title is that it will inspire or provoke our exciting and bright preachers to think about the chief thing which the Cof E needs more of, or less of, or to start doing, or to stop doing. Or it may be that they think the Church of England is practically perfect in every way, to coin a phrase, in which case they will preach about that.

Do please put the dates in your diary now, and do come along to as many of them as you can. All at 6.15pm.

An Evensong Blessing

From the service at St Paul's on the evening of May 17th

This night, this week and always,
In you and because of you,
May love conquer fear,
May hope shatter despair,
May confidence conquer anxiety,
And may the plentiful gifts of God ever flourish:

and the blessing of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen

GREETINGS FROM SPAIN Episode 1

“I am no longer my own but yours.
Put me to what you will,
Rank me with whom you will”
Methodist Covenant Prayer

Why Spain? Initially for the winter sun because the dull grey UK winter days are so depressing and to boost my vitamin D levels to improve my osteoporosis. We chose the location because it was about as far south as you can get in Spain, it looked nice and it was cheap. We looked up English speaking churches on the Internet and went along to the nearest on Sunday morning. We were pleased to discover the church in Sotogrande was an Anglican Methodist partnership and even more pleased to discover there was a midweek coffee morning in Sabinillas, our local town. The first Godincidences! Of course only visiting for 10 days or a fortnight 2 or 3 times a year we couldn't get to know people well but they were friendly and the coffee mornings were a wonderful source of local information.

So life continued for several years; then came my retirement. We were immediately able to increase the length of our visits to 3 weeks as Pete has always had longer holidays than me. We got to know the church members better, began to see more of the needs of the church and the local (ex-pat) community, and found ourselves reading the lessons and leading intercessions. We also confirmed that our health was definitely better in Spain!

Then came Pete's redundancy and early retirement. We thought it would be nice to spend more time in Spain. But there was a problem: our apartment, although perfectly adequate for short breaks, had a number of drawbacks. There was no internet access as we were in a valley and even the phone signal was poor; it was well out of town, up a steep hill and with no access to public transport so requiring a car to go anywhere; and it wasn't really big enough to accommodate family visits. Pete's redundancy money would allow us to buy something slightly bigger and closer to the beach and the town centre. Could we justify spending money on somewhere we would only occupy for a few weeks a year or should we look at a more serious involvement in Spain? We aren't the sort to want to sit back and twiddle our thumbs. The whole point of retirement was to enable us to have more time to serve God; besides which when I became a local preacher I promised to make myself available to preach.

Having prayed about it, we felt God was leading us to greater involvement in Spain. Making myself available to preach in the Gibraltar circuit became attractive. We still weren't sure, but we put our apartment on the market on the assumption that if what we were planning was God's will then the apartment would sell. There were lots of 2 bed apartments on the market, some for well over a year, so we weren't expecting any immediate action. It sold almost instantly. We felt our direction had been affirmed!

MUM'S AWAY DAY

Saturday 13th June

@ St Columba's House, Woking

Time: 10am-4pm

Led by The Reverend Gillaine Holland, Chaplain of St. Columba's House, especially for St Paul's, St Nick's and Woosehill Churches, this is a chance for mums of school and pre-school age children to escape from the busyness of family life. Come and enjoy time to relax, have fun, pray, chat together and explore your creative side.

£25 to include lunch, tea, coffee and art materials.

For more information and to book, chat to Becca Lamey (327 9116) or Susannah Riley (979 2341 susannahr61@gmail.com)

"Becca and I are really excited about the mums' away day. There are still a few spaces, so if you have been wondering about coming and not got around to it, or were busy but now find yourself free, do get in touch with us. "

Susannah

Let's celebrate the life of our Church!

There is a lot going on at Woosehill, a reason to celebrate and give thanks - here is a selection!

Tuesday evenings

Lynn Smith reports:

"The Tuesday evening Fellowship sees anything up to 15 people gather to look at aspects of our faith using DVDs as a basis for reflections. We spend time watching the video then answering questions set by the commentator or as a follow on to our discussions. We meet for an hour from 8pm in the Church sanctuary; there is usually coffee and tea and sometimes we have cake! All are welcome to join us wherever they are in their journey of faith."

Wednesday mornings

Wednesday is a busy day in the life of Woosehill! The church opens for Morning prayer at 8.30am, led by one of the clergy, and usually joined by at least one other member of the clergy team as well as a select band of others, often including members of the Tadpoles team.

Val reports:

Thereafter the mood changes as the Tadpoles mums, grannies, occasionally dads and lots of little ones fill the church with happy chatter. Tadpoles is so much more than a mother and toddler group; it is a time for fellowship and sharing of the highs and lows of the week; we are privileged to support families through times of joy and sorrow. We have recently celebrated the births of two babies, Cora and Freya, and continue to pray for families facing challenging times, including one of our group whose brother has motor neurone disease. We have also recently supported one of our members as she, together with her two children, did a sponsored run for her close friend suffering from Lyme's disease. The session ends with prayer and a blessing.

The Sanctuary is then cleared and the church made ready for the

Lunchtime fellowship

Again Lynn reports:

"Wednesday lunch time from 12 noon sees some of us from all 3 churches in the Parish who are free join in discussion and fellowship. We eat our packed lunch and chat for the first half and then spend time reading and discussing the following Sunday's Gospel reading. There is always tea and coffee for those that want it. We welcome everyone who is free to join us on Wednesdays."

Music Group

And then there's our amazing music group enhanced recently by the addition of two new members, Susannah Riley on the cello and Andy Kensley on the keyboard.

WOW, Women of Woosehill is our social group which meets monthly to enjoy friendship with a variety of activities. Contact Gillian Payne for more information on 0118 9619100 or gillian_payne@msn.com

MOW, meanwhile is the male version, which meets at the Leathern Bottel on Barkham Road once a month, usually on Wednesdays, for fellowship over a pint or two!

Together in Prayer

This group has been running for some years now and is led by Lyn Brown. The group meets in the Sanctuary on the third Thursday most months, between 8 and 9pm, to pray aloud or silently for the life of the church, the parish and the wider world as well as individual needs.

Holiday Bible Club

And of course this amazing Outreach to our local community takes place again this year on 23rd and 24th July.

Church Newsletter

We have a new editor for our weekly newsletter. Gill Waters, who with husband Bernie joined our church not long ago has taken on this role - I am sure that Louise is delighted!

Gill comments:

"As the very new 'editor' of the newsletter, I am astonished every week when I compile the notice sheet at just how many activities are taking place, and how the church is really trying to live out the Christian message in many interesting, diverse and innovative ways. There really is a place, a role and a home for everyone at Woosehill Church."

But we're not resting on our laurels, there are some interesting and exciting ideas in the pipeline - watch this space!

News from Wokingham Methodist Church

'WIND & FIRE .... Experience Pentecost' – Sunday, 7th June

Wokingham Methodist Church will be holding a day of learning, sharing, activities and celebration for all ages on 7th June. The day starts at 10.30 a.m. with morning worship, followed by lunch at 12.30 p.m.

Diverse activities (including bible study, painting, crafts, writing, singing, walking and learning about John Wesley) for all ages and interests begin at 1.30 p.m.

Tea will be served at 5 p.m. and the day finishes with Closing Worship at 6 p.m. See the church website for more details:

wokinghammethodist.org.uk

An extract from Nick Thompson's report to the recent AGM at Wokingham Methodist.

"Sadly this is my last AGM at Wokingham Methodist Church. Pam and I have loved being a part of this unique community for nearly 8 years now and we are looking forward to continuing to share the next few months with you. It will be very hard for us to leave but I want to say a huge thank you to you all for all that you bring to the life and outreach of this Church both now and on into the future.

I know that you will welcome Catherine and Mike Bowstead as they come here from Colchester with the same warmth and generosity that you have shown us over these 8 years. We are all a tiny part of the whole Body of Christ, which stretches through the world and all time and space. May he bless us in all that we do in Christ's name and trust him for all that is to come!"

Nick Thompson

Nick has of course led the Methodist aspect of our Ecumenical worship here at Woosehill during his time serving the local Circuit and we look forward to giving him our special Woosehill farewell at his very own Desert Island Discs service on June 21st at 10am.

Church notices

**JUNK NEEDED! HOLIDAY CLUB 2015****

As usual, we would like you please to collect cardboard boxes and interesting junk materials for our Holiday Club on 23rd and 24th July, as our young Polar Explorers will be making (and racing) sledges!

It would be useful if you could keep it at home until July, as we do not have room to store it here at church. However, if this is impossible I will come and collect it.

Thank you very much,

Elaine

FAIRTRADE

Several people have asked me what will happen when I give up the Fairtrade stall in July. A combination of circumstances has led to my decision; I have run the stall now for a good number of years during which time we have achieved Fairtrade church status and, together with other Wokingham Fairtrade churches, have also become a Fairtrade Ecumenical area. I have obtained my supplies in recent years from Pam Thompson and once Pam and Nick move to Marlow I don't have a supplier I can access easily. I think that St Paul's and St Nick's are still to run a stall and don't know what their supply arrangements will be - it is possible that we could join with them if anyone is interested in following up on this. I will of course continue to buy and support Fairtrade!
